

TESTIMONIALS

Eliot Kennedy ...

I have had the privilege of calling Max a friend since he was 11 years old. He always amazed me with his talent as a multi-instrumentalist musician, but he has now developed into a great songwriter and artist. It is a joy to see him perform live.

Max Restaino? The words that spring to mind are, passion, commitment, drive, perfectionist, grafter, performer, multi-instrumentalist, great singer, gifted songwriter.

Liz Hobbs Group:

Max Restaino, “was ebullient, open, fun and so upbeat that his performance got the whole crowd going. Great songs, the sax was another asset and just so dedicated and focussed. He was great!”

‘H’ Steps:

“We are delighted to have Max open for us – he is a star in the making. We loved his energy as a performer and his new single demonstrates he can back that up with the songs too. Make sure you get to the venue early!”
